Hey, kids

Have fun out there, but be very careful

PRACTICING SAFETY, BUT LUCK PLAYS A ROLE—Forest Duplessis, 9, (above left) wears all his safety gear when practicing on his go-kart; and Santana Cordova, also 9, learns bike safety at Sunday's bike rodeo sponsored by SAD44 and the Western Maine Partnership on Drug and Alcohol Awareness. But (lower photos) a moment's poor judgment Thursday nearly cost Telstar senior Richard Diaz his life, as he lost control of his motorcycle and it skidded under an oncoming car. The resulting fire destroyed the car and motorcycle (bike remains, right). Fortunately for Diaz, he was wearing a helmet, which protected him when he rolled off the motorcycle before it hit the car. Witnesses agree the helmet probably saved his life. Telstar senior escapes fiery cycle accident

By ALISON ALOISIO

Rich Diaz will graduate from Telstar High School next month. He's lucky.

Diaz was only slightly injured Thursday when his motorcycle slid under an oncoming car and burst into flames. He had just left the parking lot at Telstar.

"He was very lucky," said Bethel police chief Dale Bellman. According to Bellman and witnesses, Diaz' helmet probably saved his life.

The occupants of the car were fortunate as well. Driver George Stowell, 75, of Locke Mills, and his passenger, Terry Grant, received minor injuries.

Diaz had tried to pass two vehicles shortly after leaving school on his bike. After getting out into the left lane, he saw Stowell's oncoming car and tried to swerve to avoid it.

But he lost control of the motorcycle, and it slid into the car, bursting into flames on impact.

Diaz rolled away from the car, into the ditch.

Fellow Telstar student Caesar

Morgan was driving one of the vehicles Diaz passed.

"As soon as the bike hit, it was all flames. The younger man (Grant) got out of the car. But the older one stayed in the car too long -- way too long," Morgan said.

Morgan didn't stand by. He ran to the burning car and pulled Stowell to safety.

Asked if he was afraid as he approached the car, Morgan said, "I didn't even think about it." He said the potential danger hit home when it was all over.

Bethel Rescue and the Bethel Fire Department responded to the accident. The car was gutted by fire, and the motorcycle was reduced to a mass of scorched metal and pipes. It was unrecognizable as a bike when firemen pulled it out from under the car.

Traffic was tied up for about an hour. SAD44 busses leaving Telstar sat in the line of traffic for some time. Many students witnessed the fire, and when the busses were finally allowed to pass, saw Diaz being worked on by rescuers.

Fast track go-karts in Gilead

By ALISON ALOISIO

The explosive sputter of go-karts seems out of place amid the peaceful, botanical beauty of the Pooh Corner Farm greenhouses in Gilead. But there they are, running tight circles around a homemade dirt track built two years ago by greenhouse owner Dick Duplessis.

Duplessis and children Forest, 9, Chris, 8, and Margaret, 5, are heavily into racing go-karts.

Duplessis comes from a karting tradition -- his brothers, David and John, operate Duplessis Brothers Inc. of Sanford, which builds the karts.

And these machines are much more than something a casual tinkerer might put together with extra parts.

"They're really high-tech, miniature race cars. They burn alcohol, and have on-board telemetry, like a tachometer and cylinder head temperature gauge," said Duplessis.

The karts run on a standard five-horsepower Briggs & Stratton engine, and can reach top speeds of 55 miles per hour.

That puts them in the thick of the races held throughout northern New England. The competitions are sponsored through the World Karting Association, of which the Duplessis' are members.

Last chance for input on ordinance revisions

By MICHAEL DANIELS

If Bethel residents wish to have more input into proposed changes to the town's sign and building permit ordinances, they had better plan to show up at an informational meeting Thursday evening.

Comments or changes suggested at the informational meeting can still be incorporated into the final ordinance drafts -- should the selectmen elect to do so.

Following the informational meeting, the ordinance changes will be put into the form of articles for the Town Meeting warrant. Prior to Town Meeting the revisions will be discussed again at a public hearing (along with a number of other or-inance changes), but at that point modifications are no longer possible.

Nor can the articles be amended at Town Meeting -- although voters always have the option of rejecting the articles in their entirety.

The revisions to two ordinances are the result of lengthy reviews by volunteer committees.

The Sign Ordinance Review Committee has suggested a number of changes, including limiting the number of internally lighted signs per building and requiring that such signs have dark backgrounds and illuminated letters (rather than dark

LBO sets sights on Cranmore

By KAREN CUMMINGS

and MICHAEL DANIELS

LBO Holding has signed a letter of intent to purchase Mt. Cranmore Ski Resort in North Conway, N.H.

The holding company is owned by Les Otten, owner of Sunday River Ski Resort.

Mt. Cranmore is located only eight miles from Attitash Bear Peak, which LBO Holding purchased in August of 1994.

Otten's company is also completing the purchase of Vermont's Sugarbush resort.

Otten's was reportedly one of three bids for the historic 900-acre property, which includes the 43,000-square-foot Mt. Cranmore

Racquet Club and a 5,500-person outdoor stadium.

LBO Holding signed the agreement last week with Cranmore Country Corp., a subsidiary of Bay Bank of Boston. Cranmore Country Corp. has owned the ski area since 1991, having taken it over from Mt. Cranmore Inc.

Mt. Cranmore is regarded as a major player in the history of skiing.

The area opened with a rope tow in 1931 and the following year introduced the "innovative" Skimobile.

In 1939, the acknowledged "Fa-

SAD44 budget

Directors seek to add $102,000

By ALISON ALOISIO

The SAD44 School Board tentatively voted last week to add $102,000 worth of teachers and programs to the proposed FY'96 budget.

The additions include an English teacher (cost $27,000) at Telstar High School, a position that had been cut in Supt. Ron Jenkins' proposal. A second full-time elementary music position (not in the original proposal; cost $25,000) was also added.

Computer upgrades ($50,000) at the Andover and Woodstock schools rounded out the $102,000 put in the budget by the directors themselves.

Jenkins had told the board early in the meeting that with most contract settlements now in, he has refigured his original proposed expenditure

Jeepers arriving Friday

By MICHAEL DANIELS

The seventh annual Maine Mountains Jeep Jamboree will be held Friday and Saturday, May 12 and 13 -- and this year's event promises to be the largest yet.

More than 130 jeeps are registered, according to organizer Geoff Gaudreau, up nearly 30 percent from last year's figure. More than 100 would-be jeep jammers have had to be turned down, he said.

The higher number of participants was made possible by a decision to move the jamboree date back a week, he said, in order to allow local trails additional time to dry out after the spring thaw. The past winter and spring's exceptionally dry weather also helped.

"We expect really great conditions," Gaudreau said.

This year's participants will be prowling the woods from Rumford to Riley to South Paris. Twenty-one landowners have given permission for their trails to be used this year, Gaudreau said. By contrast, during the first running of the jamboree only two landowners were involved.

The annual parade up Main Street in Bethel is scheduled for 8:45 Saturday morning.

MDOT willing to relocate Route 5

BETHEL--The Maine Department of Transportation is willing to designate Lovers Lane, rather than Church Street, as part of Route 5 running through Bethel. In a recent letter to the town selectmen, Paul Minor, director of the MDOT Bureau of Planning, said that if the local business community would support such a change, MDOT would go along. Minor said a February survey showed that of 600 daily trips travelled between Route 5 south of town and Route 5 north of town, 500 drivers were already using the Lovers Lane option.

"Unsolved Mysteries" prompts calls

PARIS--Police received about 60 responses after a profile of two missing West Paris children aired Friday on "Unsolved Mysteries." But the children have not yet been found. Linden McLean, 12, and her brother Carl, 10, were living with their mother, Esther Ahonen, at the time of their abduction in 1991. They are supposed to be in the legal custody of their father, Gerry McLean, who still lives in West Paris. Capt. James Miclon of the Oxford County Sheriff's Department said he will spend the next several days checking the responses.

Shagg Pond Road opened

WOODSTOCK--Selectmen voted to open an eight-tenths mile stretch of the Shagg Pond Road to winter maintenance last week. It had been closed for some time. Nancy Hayward, representing the Buckley family of Casco, requested the road be reopened and plowed so the Buckleys can move year-round into a trailer they own at Shagg Pond. The reopening was discussed at a public hearing on winter road closings last Tuesday. Of the 20 people in attendance, only Hayward, Barbara Buckley, and Buckley's lawyer were in favor of the opening. The hearing was held as the result of a vote at the annual Town Meeting to re-examine winter road closings. Other portions of the Shagg Pond Road will remain closed, as will parts of the Concord Pond and Billings Hill Roads.

Stump dump work delayed

GREENWOOD--The older section of the Greenwood/Woodstock stump dump has been covered, but a concrete safety wall must be built before the dump will be in compliance with DEP guidelines. The town has until summer to come into compliance if it is to receive 75 percent of the cost back from the state. Currently a makeshift wall of earth, stone, and a wooden ramp surrounds containers for white and brown goods, selectwoman Marie Bartlett said. The replacement of that wall has been delayed by the large workload of the one AVCOG engineer overseeing the upgrade.

Selectmen appoint officials

UPTON--Selectmen recently made a number of appointments to town offices and committees. Jeff Scribner was named road commissioner, and Joe Anderson was appointed as dump attendant. Pete MacCulloch, Wayne Taylor, and Ramond Bernier were appointed to the Planning Board. They replace Mike Lewitt, whose term ran out, and Ron Jordon and James Kenney, who resigned. Selectmen also set hours for the town's Recycling Waste Management Site. The site will be open Wednesdays and Sundays, 1 to 3 p.m.

Andover selectmen talk resignation

ANDOVER--Chairman Harold Frazier of the Board of Selectmen threatened resignation at last week's meeting, and selectman Robert Greeke later confirmed his own resignation. Frazier cited an inability to get along with selectman Joseph Madigan, and Greeke voiced similar concerns. Frazier said he had been unable to control meetings because of "rhetoric," and that Madigan was trying to do too much, too soon after his election in March. Madigan conceded that there was "turmoil in the inner workings," but he said the arguments had arisen because he was trying to ensure that procedure was followed in town business.

Boy victim of hit-and-run

WEST PARIS--A young boy was injured by a hit-and-run driver Friday on the Morse Hill Road. Witnesses said a yellow Subaru station wagon struck the boy when he was standing in the road in front of his home. He was treated for minor injuries by Tri-Town Rescue, and released to his mother. The accident remains under investigation.

Welfare applicants up

RUMFORD--The average number of people seeking general assistance for food, lodging, and other living expenses has tripled in the past two months, and the Rumford welfare director says it will only get worse. Peggy Turner said cuts in state programs, including the Maine Health program, which paid for many low-income recipients' basic cost for medication, has put a bind on welfare offices across the state. She said Gov. Angus King's welfare reform bill is not realistic in rural areas. "Until we get serious about developing real jobs in Maine, then we can't expect all these low-income people to be employed," she said. She is trying to tap into the Lewiston-Auburn job market for her office's clients, but transportation is a problem. Turner is working to arrange busing through Pine Tree Transit in Mexico.

Ski slope logging halted

LIVERMORE FALLS--Questions over insurance, erosion control, and money have halted a ski slope logging operation at Spruce Mountain Ski Area. The mountain is jointly owned by the towns of Jay, Livermore, and Livermore Falls. An area ski club's board of directors has been overseeing the widening of a trail by a logging company, but Jay selectmen said the operation is more extensive than what they had approved. They also worried about insurance considerations, erosion control, and where the money from the wood is going. Livermore Falls selectmen had similar concerns. A representative of the ski club board said the town boards are not required to vote on decisions affecting the ski area. A joint meeting of slope officials and the three town boards will be scheduled to try to settle the dispute.

Fire burns 13 acres of forestland

GRAFTON NOTCH--Firefighters from three towns fought a blaze Friday that scorched 13 acres of forestland near Grafton Notch State Park. Firemen from Newry, Bethel, and Andover responded to the fire on land owned by Boise Cascade Corporation. The blaze was about one mile in on a logging road off Route 26. Four trucks were used to put out the fire.

Moose permit auction funds camp

AUGUSTA--Moose hunters from Maine, New York, and Pennsylvania submitted the winning bids in Maine's first moose permit auction. Under the program approved last year, the state offers moose hunting permits to the five highest bidders, with all proceeds going to fund conservation education for Maine children. Otherwise, would-be hunters must compete in a lottery for the permits. The Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife said 124 bids were received from across the country. The highest was $13,500, and the lowest among the five top bids was $6,000. The five winning bids total $41,202. The bid money will pay for 200 boys and girls ages 12 to 14 to attend the Maine Conservation Camp at either Lake Christopher in Bryant Pond or Long Lake near Machias.

Mt. Washington Hotel view for sale

BRETTON WOODS, N.H.--Land behind the Mount Washington Hotel is for sale, and the Society for the Preservation of New Hampshire Forests is lobbying Congress to buy it for the White Mountain National Forest. But a forest society spokesman said the state of the federal budget may hinder efforts. The property, being offered at $3 million, forms the backdrop for the hotel. The land long had been owned by the Satter Corp., a development company that had planned to build condominiums there. Satter went bankrupt and the land was sold to unidentified buyers.

From the Bethel Police log:

Flag thief in long johns strikes at Gould

On May 6 at 11 a.m., a Gould Academy staff member reported a person unknown had taken the flag from the academy's flag pole. Another staff member observed the subject but was unable to catch him, as he fled on foot. The subject was a white male juvenile, wearing shorts over long johns. He was last seen running behind the headmaster's house. The flag was valued at $200.

Friday, May 5

At 1:35 p.m., a Bethel town employee asked police if an attempted break-in had been reported at the District Exchange at the former Ethel Bisbee School. Police said it had not. The employee said she had spoken with an exchange volunteer, who said someone had damaged the keyhole on the entrance door, making it inoperable. It was unknown if entry had been gained. Police advised the building would be checked more frequently.

At 2:05 p.m., Brian J. Larson of Bethel was stopped on Route 26 and arrested on confirmation of an outstanding warrant. A subsequent pat-down search revealed a small plastic bag of marijuana hidden inside a hard pack cigarette box in his front pocket. He was also summonsed on marijuana possession.

At 3:45 p.m., a Bethel resident reported his van had been struck while he was in the Bethel Savings Bank parking lot. He said he had parked and gone inside, and on returning, discovered a vehicle had struck the back of the van, and then fled. He stated there had been a mid-1970's blue Ford pickup next to him when he parked. Damage to the complainant's vehicle was $200.

At 11:04 p.m., a Paradise Road resident reported a small gray vehicle was going up and down the road with its lights off, but its horn blowing. The complainant stated the occupants had stopped the vehicle and one or two subjects ran up to the residence and knocked on the door and windows. An investigation showed juveniles were involved. Police planned to contact and advise the juveniles that charges would be filed with the juvenile intake officer.

Thursday, May 4

At 10:10 a.m., David K. Hassett Jr. of Mexico was arrested on a warrant of violating probation and failure to appear. He was stopped on foot on Main Street. On confirmation of the warrant, a pat-down search was conducted, which revealed a marijuana pipe and wooden box, commonly referred to as a "stash box," in his shorts pocket. Both contained residue of marijuana. He was summonsed on the paraphernalia.

At 2:23 p.m., a Bryant Pond man was given a criminal summons (driving under the influence), resulting from a two-vehicle accident with multiple injuries on Route 26.

At 3:38 p.m., a Northwest Bethel Road resident requested radar on the road due to a large amount of tractor trailer traffic traveling at excessive speed. Police advised the complainant they would run some radar and slow the trucks down.

Lori relaxes through writing, reading and being physically active. Career plans include attendance at the University of Maine, Farmington, with enrollment in the Elementary Education program.

Maintaining the fifth highest rank in the class is ANGELA MAE LOVEJOY, daughter of Alanson and Tyrene Lovejoy of West Bethel. Extracurricular involvement, for Angela, involves activity in Self Esteem Support Group and High School Band as well as the varsity team sports of softball and field hockey, with memberships in both during all four years of high school, thereby earning a varsity letter in both.

Angela is a committed member of her local township through her involvement with the American Legion Auxiliary, Locke Mills, and Church of the Nazarene in Bethel. Scholastically, she has been recognized through awards such as Academic Excellence in English and Spanish with an additional Special Recognition Award in English thereafter. Out-of-school interests are biking, drawing, music, puzzles and outdoor activities. Angela will be joining the freshman class at the University of Maine, Orono, in the fall, with plans to work towards a B.S. in microbiology.

Amy's athletic prowess has served Telstar well in light of her diverse skills in the areas of cross country running, nordic skiing and track events, with four-year memberships and varsity letter presentations in all of these teams. As a freshman, Amy was invited to take part in the Track Competition in London, England, where, again, she faced a tremendous challenge in fundraising and support solicitation which allowed this opportunity to become a reality.

Among Amy's numerous awards are Special Recognition in Shakespeare, Top Career Week Project, and second place in American Legion Essay Competition. She, additionally, has received Most Valuable Player Awards in cross country running and track as well as Hustle Awards in both. Nominations to the MVC Second Team All-stars in cross country running have been consistently forthcoming for her four-year high school career with the further honor of MVC Second Team All-stars selection in the 4x400 relay.

Amy's strong athletic interests are evident through her leisure activities such as several years of dance instruction as well as enjoyment of all sports-related activities; she also gains a great deal of satisfaction from her work with others which is most evident through her highly developed people skills. Castleton State College in Vermont is Amy's future destination in light of her plans to pursue the double major of biochemistry and physical education.

Shane has amassed a noteworthy list of honors during his high school career, namely Academic Achievement Awards in history and foreign language, Academic Excellence Awards in English, psychology, history and keyboarding along with Special Recognition Award in English. North Newry

by Gil Seeley

Services at the Newry Community Church Sunday, April 30, were performed with Pastor Rodney Hanscom at the pulpit and Nancy Anderson at the organ. The Message of the Day was "Who is worthy?" from Scriptures Revelations 5:11-14. "And the Angels were saying with loud voices, worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and blessings." There was also a special by Gil Seeley, "Heaven's Grocery Store."

The Windy Valleys Sno-Mobile Club met Tuesday night, May 2, at the Town Building with President Owen Wight at the chair. Don Gray, secretary, gave the report of the last meeting and finances were brought up to date. The president read a letter about the annual Ride-in that helps support the Horizon Unlimited of Rumford, and is the club's major charity. Guests that night were James Boutlier and Ginny Spiller of Rangeley, regarding a possible snowmobile rental business location right here in Newry. There was a long discussion on the subject, and there will be more on that later also. Coffee, etc., was enjoyed with more lively conversation prior to adjournment. The next one, on June 6 at the same place, will be the last one, then a two-months' vacation 'til Sept. 5 when there will be election of officers.

Sylvia Harrington hosted a Fenmore Magic Plants Hydroculture Plant System at her home Wednesday evening, May 3, with consultant Connie Adams of R.F.D. 1, Box 563, Canton, ME 04221 (Tel. 207-597-2251). Connie explained the trouble-free way to grow beautiful plants without bothering with soil, or the headache of normal plant care, like too much or too little water, or fertilizer, etc. This is the easy modern way to grow beautiful plants, clean, odorless and free from soil-borne insects and diseases. Anyone interested in knowing more about the method can contact Connie. It was a fun evening with coffee, etc. and lots of talking.

Betsy Clark, Gil Seeley, Louise Tetley, Bea Lowell, Doris Parent and Olive Anderson, all of the "Newry Bowling Gang" were at the Oxford Lanes, Rumford, one day last week. On the overall scores, Betsy was high on the triples and singles with one string of 103. Of the "Righties," Doris was high on both the triples and singles. Betsy had two spares, and Gil, Olive, Louise and Bea each had one spare.

Happy Birthday to Rena Powers. "Briefly" ... This span of life was lent for lofty duties, not for selfishness, not to be whittled away for aimless dreams, but to improve ourselves, and serve mankind...

Speaker at the Unitarian-Universalist Church on May 21 will be Rev. Joseph Majeau.

The topic will be "Changes in Life." Franklin Grange 124 met on Monday, May 1, for a program on "Deaf Awareness." State officers Wayne and Linda Sherman and Connie Tuttle were present, as was Hillary Sherman. Thirty-two were present. The Charter was draped in memory of Viva Whitman. The program was held before the meeting as follows: opening thought, Bertha Benoit; opening song by all; Hillary Sherman signed two songs, then Bertha Benoit sang the "Lord's Prayer" and Hillary signed it. It was very interesting. Bertha explained several devices or codes used for deaf people and named several people in sports who were deaf, also Miss America, Connie Tuttle spoke; she is on the Deaf Awareness Committee. Bertha told some causes and reasons for deafness; Harry Boyer sang a couple songs; several ladies took part in a thing for Mother's Day and all sang "Mother"; Richard Fell was presented cards for his birthday; Mystery March; skit by Bertha and Richard; closing thought; Edwin Howe received his 50-year card and certificate and seal. Wayne Sherman and Linda Sherman spoke briefly. Next meeting will be children's night. In the last grange news I reported on Jr. Grange members in the program, instead I should have said young people who we hope may one day become Jr. Grangers. Next meeting will be May 15.

Greenwood City

by Colista Morgan
The green hills are now shimmering under bright sunlight. Our used-to-be birds are back twittering out their happiness. Our impression is that they are happy. Scientists may rightly scoff at us for such statements. No proof either way, but we like to think by the gladness of song that they are, just as we come to the conclusion that people are happy.

I had to go outside and enjoy the day. I transplanted a few rose bushes and set out my pansies. I also looked at my blood-root plants in full bloom.

The breeze wandered over the pond and the geese were busy off shore.

April is history. May is here. Life itself is stirring. With its radiant charm, Oh, what is half so wonderful as springtime on the farm?

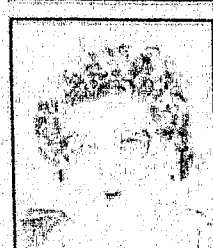

As I look out across my lawn this last day of April, I think how fortunate I am to have the best pieces and nephews one could ever hope to have. Eight of them arrived at my home mid-morning to clear my grounds of leaves, pick up limbs and prepare my flower gardens. They came prepared for everything: rakes, shovels, and wheelbarrows. They made every minute fun. I'm very grateful to them and thank them so much.

Mr. Betts is having her porch removed then a new one built. Her son is doing it.

The sons and daughters of Rita and Chris visited her over the weekend. Elizabeth and Aaron have come to visit here for the summer. We hope to have them here from Bethel.

I found a mystery. Someone had cut a path through my yard, on my path to about a yard from my steps. Sunday p.m. or night. I found it early Sunday morning when I opened my porch door. It was a shallow groove the size of a finger. I have tried to find the owner. No luck. A person had climbed my new steps and carved two lines under my door and he made the ring.

East Stoneham

by Eleanor Nelson
Pythian Sisters Meet -- the 92nd session of Grand Temple of Maine met at Sunday River

April 27 to 29, Arlene Merrill was installed Grand Chief of the Pythian Sisters. John Downs from Brunswick was installed Grand Chancellor. Lucetta Rand (Arlene's daughter) of Harrison attended and took many pictures. Charles Merrill presented Arlene with a corsage. Dana and Sue Gregson attended and on the return home, the Merrills were invited to dinner in North Conway by the Gregsons.

Arlene has a charity she is working for called "Make a Wish Foundation." The money goes into Norway Savings Bank until Arlene gets out of the office of Chief and then it will be presented to the foundation plus interest.

Dana Gregson and wife have donated a special two-story dollhouse with miniature brass furniture and electricity. Chances will be sold, and the lucky ticket will be drawn April 26, 1996.

On May 13, the Pythian Sisters will hold a convention at the K.P. Hall in Stoneham. A School of Instruction was held there on May 6.

Leslie and Gary Dean and family went to Seekonk, Mass., over the past weekend and attended a bridal shower at the Johns & Wales Inn in honor of the approaching marriage of Randy Dean and Mary-Lynn Dean.

Walter and Carolyn Heino went to visit Frank and visited with John and Frank Gross, who used to live in Stoneham. Jan has had a fall and is quite well.

John and Betty Woodbury are at home in London, England. They were there when they attended the wedding and reception of Tim and Sarah Boxley, which took place in Milford, Sussex. Simon is a elementary teacher there, and his father performed the ceremony. The newlyweds will live in Haveshott. Liz is the daughter of Jim and Barbara Tindler, who with son Brian attended the ceremonies.

Taylor Hammond of Gorham visited her grandparents, Albert and Mary Fox, a few days while her parents were away.

Monday night, Albert Nelson Jr. and son Troy went "up country" smelling and got their limits. On the way to and from, they saw eight moose and seven deer.

Recent callers at the home of Lois and Eddie Niemi were Anna Wadsworth of Mechanic Falls, Helen Edmonds of Oxford, and Bill and Ruth Chick of West Paris. Tuesday, May 2, Lois Niemi (Most Excellent Chief) attended the Pythian Sisters' meeting at Oxford.

Edith Hoff has a new great-granddaughter, born April 18, named Lauren Ruth. She is the daughter of Wendy and Frank Whiting of Denmark.

Pastor Janice and Everett Wilcox welcomed a new grandson into the family recently. His name is Matthew Everett Wilcox, and he joins a brother, Ryan, who is three years old. His parents are Christine and Gary Wilcox of Worcester, Mass.

Vance Jordan has recently painted the floor of the East Stoneham Church, and it looks real nice and shiny and new. Mary Grover and Jean Littlefield have recently cleaned out the church Thrift Shop and hope to start out the year with fresh, clean articles. (The little room is small and gets quite damp and musty during the winter.) With good teamwork we hope to be operating again soon.

East Bethel

Alder River Grange will hold a regular meeting at the hall on May 12 at 7:30 p.m.

Jack and Lucy Nordahl were in Boston, Mass., for Easter at their daughter's. They visited friends and family in Rhode Island as well as Massachusetts. They stopped at Cape Cod and Nantucket.

Barbara Hastings spent two weeks in Concord, Massachusetts, and New Hampshire. She visited family in all the areas visited, and Ginny Gamble brought her to Bethel. Ginny stayed for two days.

Barbara is a great-grandmother. Ann and Dave Morton's daughter, Pam, and her husband, Steve, had a baby boy on April 20 in Bethel.

East Bethel Cemetery clean-up will be May 20 with a rain day of May 21.

South Woodstock

by Andrea Wing
Over 100 friends, farmers and relatives joined Beverly Stevens, Oxford County Executive Director, for an open house at the Agricultural Office in South Paris on May 3 to congratulate her on her retirement. Beverly worked for ASCS for over 32 years and is known by farmers in Oxford County. Many state office personnel were on hand to make presentations for a job well done, including Arnold Roach, State Executive Director, Cal Henderson, AO, Brett Mullis, and many others who came to make her day special. Many towns were represented and we all wish her well in her retirement. Laura Rand assumed the duties of Oxford County Executive Director for the time being.

Many in this area have returned from trips to Florida. I think all of Maine goes to Florida in the spring. They are Duane and Lisa Ryerson and family, Gina and Lloyd Poland and family, Perry and Anna Ryerson and family, Debbie and Brandy Poland, Erlon and Maude Alice Hadley, and Cleo Ryerson, who made his first trip to Florida and loved it. Barbara Cash has had another operation. Hopefully this will be the one that helps her. I wish her well and hope she's feeling better at this writing.

The Anna Poland is home for a few days from Mobile, Ala., where she is employed as a physical therapist. She is staying with her parents, Bill and Joan Poland.

Mr. and Mrs. John (Chris) Nowlin has been called to Maine because of the sickness of Chris's father, John Nowlin. Chris and Lorraine are in Sumnerfield, Fla. Lorraine Nowlin stayed with her mother, Ruth Davis, and later joined Pat (Lorraine) for lunch at Burger King. Lorraine visited some of the family to see if they could visit, as Lorraine and Chris' stay was to be short. Those joining them were Lorraine and Chris.

rairie Nowlin, Pat Tibbetts, Lou Haskell, Tim and Jackie Kennaugh, Ethel Davis, Erlon Twitchell, and Edith Deegan.

Tim Poland, who broke his leg this winter, is coming along some better, but is still quite house bound. He made a dooryard call in his truck to visit with Richard Wing one day recently.

Jessie Hart and Emily Phillips are on the track team at Telstar Middle School this spring. They have had one track meet so far.

Jeff and Debbie Campbell have a new pool. I'm sure their boys will appreciate it this summer. Jeff has his home all fixed up and it is looking really nice.

Larry Billings, curator, Woodstock Historical Society reports that Irving Tuttle donated two large portraits to the society. Mr. Billings reminds us that the society records local and area history the best way it can. Woodstock has many things that help make it unique and other things that make it representative of most small towns.

Quote of the week: "I've learned that people are in such a hurry to get to the 'good life' that they often rush right past it."

West Paris

On Saturday, little Ashley Hemphill was the center of attraction at a birthday party in her honor, as she was one year old. She is the daughter of David and Kathy Hemphill. The party took place at the home of grandparents James and Joan Young. Those also present were great-grandparents Howard and Lois Ellingwood and Rick and Jan Bracken, Jason and Lorraine, Tim and Patty Poland, Clay and Karen Wilson and Joey, Davey, Mike and Tina Hemphill.

Gay and Lisa Latho spent the weekend in Laconia, N.H.

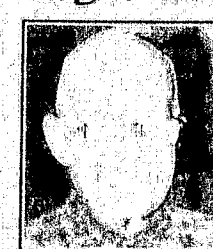

Bill and Ginny Aridas of Holbrook, N.Y., were here in Tuelltown during the past weekend.

Friends of the Library will meet on Wednesday evening, May 10, at the library at 7 p.m.

The public supper at Goodwill Hall of the Universalist Church will be on Friday, May 12. Serving will begin at 5:30 p.m. -- $5 for adults and $2.50 for children 12 and younger.

Howdy, Folks. We're having a cloudy, foggy morning this first day of May, but the weatherman assures us that we will see some sunshine during the day.

Visitors at the Lovejoy home this past week have been David Small from Kennebunk and Leona Farnum from Bryant Pond.

There will be a dance at Locke Mills Town Hall on May 13, with music by the Richard Felt Orchestra. A good time is had by one and all at these dances.

Don't forget the Craft, Food and White Elephant Sale, to be held at West Paris Grange Hall on May 13 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. They still have a few tables available for $3 each. To reserve one or more tables, contact Peggy Blake at 674-3872 or Mary Lovejoy at 674-2147. Donations of food or white elephant items will be appreciated. Come help make our day complete.

Chea Davis, 6, the daughter of Vernon and Tammy Davis, is this year's Mundt-Allen Post American Legion Poppy Girl. Chea is a first-grader at Crescent Park School. Town Manager Madeleine Henley made her contribution last week; other contributions can be made until Memorial Day. The poppies are made by disabled veterans. Proceeds from their sale go to aid veterans and their families.

Bicentennial Committee notes:

By J. NE. ABBOTT

The Bethel Bicentennial Committee reminds everyone that there are two major projects coming to their completion within the next two weeks.

The logo contest has a deadline of May 15, with judging and announcement of the winning entry shortly thereafter. This logo will be evident throughout the celebration, so the committee urges the "creative" of Bethel to get their ideas submitted.

The planning for the "Bethel Belles and Brides" fashion show is in its final stages and the committee encourages everyone to support this fund-raising event on May 20 at 2 p.m. Tickets are now available at Preb's and Ruffalo's on Main Street.

The Education Committee has reported that it is planning periodic exhibits and coordinated activities on a variety of topics to begin in the fall, 1995. These exhibits will include artifacts, pictures, diaries, and will be available to the public on a rotating three-four week basis.

Anyone interested in aiding in the research or willing to speak on any of the following topics are invited to contact Education Chairman Nan Timbush at 824-2244: transportation and mail service, education, Bethelites in the service of their government/infrastructure, architecture, farming, religion and housing grounds, health/medicine, famous visitors, industry, nature, inhabitants, cultural development and events, and mysteries.

We would like to hear from you again that all are welcome to the next Bethel Bicentennial committee meeting on May 25 at 7 p.m. at Stan Howe's home at 18 Broad Street.

'Real people, real places, real history'

"Real People, Real Places, Real History" is the theme of the week-long, May 14-20, National Historical Preservation Week celebration, co-sponsored by the National Trust for Historic Preservation and the Bethel Historical Society.

"This year's theme calls on us to honor the individuals who have made a real difference in preserving our heritage. These are the 'preservation heroes' whose commitment and creativity we celebrate this year," said Richard Moe, president of the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

As part of the week-long celebration, citizens nationwide will be honoring their local preservation heroes who have made a contribution to the cause. In Bethel, Preservation Week will be observed by the Historical Society through a Preservation Award to Patricia Thurston for her work in preserving Philbrook Place. A certificate of commendation was presented to her at the society's May monthly meeting and her name will be officially listed on the Preservation Award plaque on permanent exhibition in the society's Dr. Moses Mason House meeting room.

PROUD BIKER—Ashley Provencher, a kindergartner at Crescent Park School, was the lucky raffle winner at Sunday's bike rodeo sponsored by SAD44 and the Western Maine Partnership on Drug and Alcohol Awareness. The rodeo was part of an effort to educate elementary age children about bike safety. Wallace's Wheels in Rumford offered the bike at cost (and will swap this bike for one more to Ashley's size), the Partnership funded the bike, and the Wellness Team and school community volunteers organized the events.

"Last year at the Mollycodd Day race, I came in second against my dad's brothers, and they're good," Forest said.

JORDAN FAMILY REUNION

The third National Reunion of the descendants of the Reverend Robert and Sarah Jordan will be held July 20 to 23 in Portland. Some of this year's many activities will include a lobster bake at Fort Williams, genealogy research and recordings, reports on a research trip to England, gravesite restoration, a family auction fundraiser, a banquet with guest speaker Joe Perham, lots of socializing and many other activities.

Everyone interested in the event should register so appropriate plans can be made to cover the associated costs. For more information on the family association and reunions, write Roland G. Jordan, 42 Hector Street, Auburn, Maine, 04210.

Ordinances

letters against an illuminated background).

The revision also adds to the list of signs that do not require permits, stipulates a late fee of $50 for signs erected without a permit, limits the time temporary signs (including beer and cigarette signs) can be displayed, and adds a number of definitions intended to clarify gray areas in the current ordinance.

In some key respects the revised sign ordinance would be more business-friendly than the current version. For example, the new regulation takes into account the size of a building's wall or the setback of a sign in determining its maximum allowable size. In many cases this would allow for larger signs than currently permitted.

The committee that reviewed the building permit ordinance has suggested replacing the current one-page version with a more comprehensive document.

The new version would incorporate various state and federal requirements (requirements which builders would have to meet whether or not they are included in Bethel's ordinance).

The revision also includes new fees (ranging from $10 to $150) for various categories of construction.

There are also new plumbing fees, but once again these are state mandated fees that builders would have to pay whether or not they are included in Bethel's ordinance.

The revision also stipulates a minimum setback of 10 feet from side and rear property lines, in the interest of fire safety.

Thursday's informational meeting will be held in the Telstar Auditorium, beginning at 7 p.m. Copies of both sets of proposed revisions are available in the Town Office.
